

Leslie Stiles

PBCC Honorary Chair

Leslie Stiles has been in the communication business for over twenty years. She presently serves as Executive Director for the Pennsylvania Commission for Women. Appointed by the Governor, she acts as state government's advocate for all issues as they impact on women and girls. Her twenty-six woman Commission educates advises and advocates for their constituencies, providing opportunities for women and girls to reach their highest potential, free from discrimination of any kind. In 2005, Leslie was named the Honorary Chair of the PA Breast Cancer Coalition.

Leslie has used her innovative and creative leadership style to promote PCW priority issues such as healthcare, economic stability and education. She is a vigorous and outspoken advocate for women in government and women's healthcare. In addition to underlining the branding of the Commission for Women, Leslie has broadened the outreach to women across the Commonwealth by initiating and implementing the Pennsylvania Governor's Conference for Women, an annual event of personal and professional development.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Leslie served as Director of Marketing for the National Constitution Center. In that capacity, she created distinctive branding and advertising while initiating corporate, community and industry partnerships. Before working for the National Constitution Center, she was a Vice President at First Union Bank and Corestates Bank, managing the marketing for the Commercial and International side of the business. Here, she utilized her consummate skills to bring more targeted, creative marketing to the business side of the bank, becoming a dynamic force within her company and community. Throughout her career, Leslie has been active in the realm of public outreach. She serves as a founding board member of the Philadelphia Marion Anderson Award, an organization that focuses on community investment programs and its award for artistic and humanitarian achievements. She also serves on the board of the Susan G. Komen Philadelphia Affiliate. A breast cancer survivor herself, Leslie was selected as the PA Breast Cancer Coalition Pink Ribbon Awardee in 2006. In addition, Leslie has been honored for her work with the Thomas Jefferson University Hospital Buddy Program, an initiative that focuses on the counseling of newly diagnosed cancer patients, and the Susan G. Komen Foundation. She is currently a member of the Forum of Executive Women. Leslie has used her increasingly responsible roles to strengthen both the industries in which she has worked and her community.

PA Breast Cancer Coalition
344 N. Reading Rd.
Ephrata, PA 17522
1-800-377-8828
717-721-2585 (fax)

www.pabreastcancer.org

